

IE Spring Event 2017 – 19-21 May in Prague

Parallel sessions Saturday, 20 May, 09:30-12:30

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
09:30-10:00	Alexandra Lotz (Germany): Czech National Stud Kladruby nad Labem: Interpreting a living heritage site	Ivana Jagic, Mirna Draženović and Iva Klaric (Croatia): Challenges and opportunities for heritage interpretation in Croatia	Irena Lazar and Zrinka Mileusnic (Slovenia): Heritage interpretation as part of the heritage study programmes in Koper	Kristian Bjørnstad (Norway): Certified Interpretive Host Course (IE training taster)
10:00-10:30	Elien De Meyere (Belgium): How to do heritage education with young children	Iva Silla (Croatia): Heritage interpretation in city tours: The Zagreb experience	Thorsten Ludwig (Germany): Developments around the interpretive triangle
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-11:30	Aintzane Eguilior, Amaia Apraiz Sahagún and Ainara Martínez Matía (Spain): European Heritage Days: An example of the application of heritage interpretation for the migrant communities in Biscay	Claudiu Silvestru and Diana Silvestru (Austria): Interpretation of cultural heritage in Austria: Management, promotion, presentation, networking and education	Celine Tastet (France): Integrating a PhD candidate within your team: The CIFRE contract in France	Valya Stergioti (Greece): Setting the bar high: Interpret Europe's training philosophy
11:30-12:00 12:00-12:30	Pjotr Idziak and Katarzyna Baranska (Poland): Ambassadors for the audience: Implementation of interpretation methods in Malopolska	Michal Medek (Czech Republic): EU funding of heritage interpretation in the Czech Republic – opportunity lost?	Poul Hjulmann Seidler (Denmark): From education to improved performance in practice	Steven Richards-Price (UK): Certified Interpretive Writer Course (IE training taster)
13:00-13:30

Light orange shading: workshop

Parallel sessions Saturday, 20 May, 13:30-14:30

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
13:30-14:00	Patrick Lehnés (Germany): What do populist victories mean for heritage interpretation?	Luďa Klusáková (Czech Republic): Heritage representational strategies in Gascony and the Polish / Slovak Carpathian Region	Valeria Klitsounova (Belarus): Special mission of teaching heritage interpretation in post-socialist countries	Kate Howard and Mark Wallis (UK): Certified Live Interpreter Course (IE training taster)
14:00-14:30			Michal Medek, Olga Žampová and Hana Havlůjová (Czech Republic): Heritage interpretation courses in higher education in the Czech Republic
14:30-15:00	Break

Parallel sessions Sunday, 21 May, 09:30-11:30

	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
09:30-10:00	Nicole Deufel (Germany): Agonistic Interpretation: Proposal for a new paradigm of interpretation	Verena Perko and Dijana Pita da Costa (Slovenia): Balkans between East and West: The social responsibility of heritage interpretation	Poul Hjulmann Seidler (Denmark): Assignment and courses as stepping stones to reaching higher learning levels	Sandy Colvine (France): Certified Interpretive Guide Course (IE training taster)
10:00-10:30
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-11:30	Luiz Antonio Bolcato Custodio (Brazil): Heritage interpretation – cultural materials in educational programmes	Dijana Pita de Costa, Franci Zidar, Klemen Rupnik and Tadej Štok (Slovenia): Mobile media interpretation: Financial and interpretive challenges related to digital storytelling	Patrick Lehnés (Germany): Heritage interpretation for migrant inclusion at schools	Michal Medek (Czech Republic): Certified Interpretive Planner Course (IE training taster)

Light orange shading: workshop